

Issue 10 | June 15

Dear reader,

even though summer is having a bit of a break at the moment, we are more active than ever and would like to share some interesting news from the home of Anklam Extrakt with you.

The Anklam Extrakt Team hopes you enjoy your read and wishes you a great start to the second half of the year!

Marketing and Sales - the new Nuremberg site

Anklam Extrakt is dedicating the last few days in June to make sure the moving boxes are fully packed up. Our former marketing and sales office in Erlangen was unable to keep pace with the successful growth and expansion we are experiencing. We found premises ideally suiting to our needs - much more modern and larger - and this caused our fast decision to move to Nuremberg - with considerably more space for creative ideas.

From 26th June, you will find us at Campus Marienberg, Marienbergstrasse 94 in 90411 Nuremberg.

Centrally located in the green zone in the north of Nuremberg, our new office is located in the middle of the metropolitan region's city triangle, close to the airport. Public transport is within walking distance and the 600 parking spaces in our own indoor car park reflect the ideal level of accessibility Campus Marienberg provides us.

During the relocation taking place from 23rd of June to 26th of June there may be a limited availability of your contacts. If, during this time, you are unable to reach us by phone, please get in touch with us by e-mail using the regular e-mail address.

Our established marketing and sales team headed by Ms. Claudia Pühn (Director Marketing & Sales) looks forward to welcome you to our new premises.
