

Issue 51 / February 2021

Dear reader,

Anklam Extrakt® is known for its high quality plant extracts. To go one step further, we also support our customers with finished products that we develop with our contract manufacturing partners. Today we would like to present a new and very innovative concept. NutriCaps are a unique way to present food supplements. You only need a hard-pod coffee machine to prepare a delicious hot drink.

Detox NutriCaps

Our Detox NutriCaps combine the branded and well-studied ingredient Delphinol® with Hibiscus extract, Biotin, Selenium and Zinc. Together with the antioxidant capacity of Delphinol® the ingredients contribute to normal macronutrient metabolism, to the protection of cells from oxidative stress and to normal metabolism of fatty acids, which makes the combination a perfect match to address overall body well-being.

Cognition Kick NutriCaps

Cognition Kick NutriCaps are a handy and tasty way to support cognitive function. They contain cognitaven®, Mate (a natural source of Caffeine) as well as Zinc and Vitamins that contribute to the reduction of tiredness and fatigue and support normal mental performance and cognitive function.

We think it is very tasty.
